A Message from YFT Founder and Chairman, Joe Gibbs

October 4, 2025

Dear Friends:

It has been over 40 years since the Lord placed it on my heart to establish a Christian home for troubled teenage boys. Today, 40 years later, that calling—a dream—has become a reality and is even more than I ever imagined. I thank the Lord for Gary Jones, who has been my Quarterback, leading our Youth For Tomorrow team for over 38 years.

As citizens within our communities and throughout our Nation, we are challenged to provide programs and services to troubled teenagers who are estranged from their families or alienated from their communities. Many of these children are victims of unimaginable abuse and personal tragedies. YFT successfully serves these children by providing nurturing homes, quality education, and therapeutic counseling to help them heal, restore their faith, and rebuild their lives.

I would like to thank our Presenting Sponsor, my good friends from Toyota, and our two Co-Chairs for this event: Ken Shepherd of Miller Toyota and Tom Shumaker, formerly with Holder Construction. I appreciate their leadership, and for being esteemed members of our Board.

I am grateful to you, our donors, supporters, and friends. I know that you have many options for how to spend your time and resources, but you have graciously chosen to give of yourselves to the Godly mission of YFT and to the children the Lord directs here. Truthfully, we can all buy many things, but the memories and experiences we cherish are priceless. YFT has provided me with an abundance of my fondest memories.

My sincerest gratitude to you for your steadfast commitment to the Lord's work carried out through YFT and for being here today!

God Bless you,

Joe Gibbs

★11★ Sponsor the Home for the Holidays

Our wish for this upcoming Holiday Season is for every child residing at YFT, and the hundreds of children we serve through our Behavioral Health Services and other community-based programs, to experience the magic of Christmas. Many of our children are from unstable families, or their family is struggling financially to just to meet the most basic needs. This is a chance to be Santa and help to ensure every child who we serve will have a Christmas morning that they will never forget!

In addition, our therapists in our community-based programs identify children and families they work with who are in need of food assistance to provide a holiday meal for Thanksgiving and for Christmas. Last year, with the support of our donors, YFT provided holiday meals to over 800 families in our communities.

We continue to grow and serve more children, and the requests for our Angel Tree and Feeding Families assistance for the Holidays continues to increase.

"The NASCAR Charlotte racing experience was one of the coolest experiences you could ask for. Sitting in the 1st turn condo on the track was a once in a lifetime experience, along with the opportunity to drive a NASCAR race car at 150+ MPH is something you will never forget. Sitting in the condo, being able to watch cars not only running the oval track but also the road course during the day and even into the night was a car enthusiast's dream come true. I would suggest that anyone into racing should go for a package like this at any price." -Friend of YFT, Fred Koch

Past YFT Resident Spotlight

Aaron Stone

As he looks back on his time spent at Youth For Tomorrow, Aaron marvels at the growth of the campus. “When I was here (’91-’92) they only had one home -- the Hazel Home for boys. The Chapel wasn’t here, the school building wasn’t here, and we had a trailer in the back where we went to school,” Stone said.

In 1991, when Aaron was a teen, he was struggling with authority, didn’t go to school, and admitted he “pretty much did what I wanted.” YFT changed the direction of his life. A good student prior to straying off course as an adolescent, he regrouped academically at YFT, and found a deeper meaning to his life.

Aaron credits Mr. William A. Hazel who had mentored him while at YFT and instilled a desire to enter the construction field. For the past 20 years, Aaron has been employed by William A Hazel Inc. Construction as a Superintendent. He fondly recalls, “YFT is here to give you a chance. Looking back, I wouldn’t be here today if it wasn’t for this place.”

Do you have appreciated assets, such as real estate, stock, or a private business, that you’re planning to sell?

I can help you avoid capital gains taxes and secure a substantial tax deduction—all while supporting a cause you care about, such as YFT.

Suppose you have an IRA that you no longer need. In that case, I can help you maximize its value—often by two to three times—allowing you to leave a greater inheritance for your children and for YFT, completely tax-free, along with the added benefit of a tax deduction.

★28★ Civil War Remington-Maynard Tape Primer Percussion Conversion U.S. Model 1816 Rifled-Musket (Circa 1857)

A remarkable piece of American history, this U.S. Model 1816 rifled-musket stands as a scarce example of a Civil War-era Remington-Maynard tape primer percussion conversion. Featuring a 42" rifled .69 caliber barrel with a rare Long Range rear sight and post-and-band front sight, this musket is distinguished by its original lock plate stamp: "REMINGTON'S / ILION, N.Y. / 1857."

The musket remains in excellent, all-original and matching condition, with crisp markings, two Ordnance inspector's cartouches on the side panel, and a handsome deep grey metal patina. The stock retains its original finish, the lock is in working order, and the bore is exceptionally well-preserved.

This rifle is particularly scarce as most observed examples were produced in smoothbore form, making this rifled and sighted model a highly desirable collector's piece.

We saw, up close, elegant giraffes, elephants, beautiful zebras, and many other wild animals. A guide drove us in a comfortable covered jeep for two safaris a day - two hours early in the morning and two hours later in the afternoon. Our bedroom was large with a patio and a very nice bathroom...no camping! We had three delicious meals each day. The entire staff was kind and very helpful. This is a great way to experience Africa! -YFT Trustee, Barbara Lewis
