Dear Friends,

We invite you to join us for the 36th Annual Burgundy & Gold Banquet, at the Ritz-Carlton in Tysons Corner on Thursday, May 15th. Join Coach Joe Gibbs along with Super Bowl winning quarterbacks, Mark Rypien, Joe Theismann and Doug Williams for an evening of fellowship and football anecdotes!

This premier charitable fundraiser for Joe Gibbs' Youth For Tomorrow is always a sellout and you won't want to miss out on all that the Burgundy & Gold Banquet has to offer!

Coach Gibbs will join Mark Rypien, Joe Theismann and Doug Williams on stage to discuss the Redskins glory days! Each of these legendary quarterbacks will provide their unique view on their respective Super Bowl wins at this year's Burgundy and Gold!

The evening will also feature the annual presentation of the 2024 Quarterback Club of Washington "Player of the Year" award being presented to NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year, Commanders Quarterback, Jayden Daniels!

Additionally, you'll have the opportunity to raise your paddle and bid on some very exciting Live Auction items as well as support YFT's Behavioral Health Services through the Bid Appeal!

Your sponsorship not only provides you access to such an incredible evening of entertainment, but ensures that YFT can continue to serve children and families in our community.

We thank you for your generous support and look forward to seeing you on Thursday, May 15th!

Chief Executive Officer

SPECIAL GUESTS

MARK RYPIEN

Rypien was picked by the Washington Redskins in the sixth round of the 1986 NFL draft. At Washington, he led the Redskins to the 1991 NFL championship and earned MVP honors in the 1992 Super Bowl. He was a two-time Pro Bowl player, was a second-team All-Pro in 1991 and was voted as a member of the 70 greatest players in DC football history.

JOE THEISMANN

Theismann played in 163 consecutive games from 1974-1985 for the Washington Redskins and holds Redskin records for passing yardage (25,206), completions (2,044) and attempts (3,602). He was a two-time Pro Bowl selection and Pro Bowl MVP leading the Washington Redskins to a 27-17 victory over the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XVII. He was selected as the NFL's Man of the Year in 1982 for his community service and dedication to the health and welfare of children. In 1983, he won the league's Most Valuable Player Award, leading the Redskins to a second consecutive Super Bowl appearance.

DOUG WILLIAMS

Williams, a member of the 80 Greatest Washington players and franchise's Ring of Fame, played with the team from 1986-89 and led Washington to a Super Bowl XXII title, which was a 42-10 rout of the Denver Broncos. The first African American quarterback to play in a Super Bowl, he completed 18-of-29 passes for 340 yards with four touchdown passes to earn Super Bowl XXII MVP honors. In his Super Bowl XXII MVP performance following the 1987 season, he set or tied several Super Bowl passing records, including most TD passes (four), most yards passing (340), longest pass completion (80 yards) and longest TD pass (80 yards).
